FRIDAY FEBRUARY 15 1901.

REORGANIZATION NO MORE.

The mission of democracy to the world is to proclaim strength to the weak, freedom to the slave, wherever he is, irrespective of the chains that bind him. To procure in its broadest and highest sense liberty to all men upon the face of the earth is the work to which it is devoted, without any reservation; saving the restraint required to secure order, without which there can be no liberty as it is understood by civilized men.

The purpose of the Master and the work of democracy are the same in essence—full of truth and justice. Its work is as high as heaven and as broad as eternity. Its principles were conceived in the Divine mind before the foundations of creation were laid to give opportunity for it to develop as an ultimate fact in the great plan of creation. It includes morality and truth wherever it appears, and whatever there is in opposition to it is a lie and belongs to its father, the devil.

The astute Grover, full of craft and cunning, having critically examined the sentiments entertained by men in the South, has retired from a self-sought position as a leader in the Democratic party. Grover believed himself to be shrewd and able to discern by means of subtle methods the disgust that would follow a defeat to the Democrats in the last national election.
He, with his cohort, deliberately worked to bring defeat to the party, believing it would redound to the future glory of Cleveland, Whitney & Co., but "the best laid plans of men and mice" are often thwarted by adverse winds in the realms of space, to the discomfiture of plan-makers, cunning though they be.

Since Grover has heard from the South, where he is expected to receive aid and comfort in his treason to the Democrats, he has retired in his gloom, to bewe more gloom in the future, in which he has been since the defeat of Cleveland, Whitney & Co., at Chicago in 1896. There seems to be a law connected with the order of things that provides compensation for hidden workings covered by deceit and a wilful purpose to injure—more especially to injure those who have been friends.

Grover received the united support of Democrats the first time he ran for President, and the second time he was elected he received the support of a great body of the party and the united support of the gold power, or anti-silver element in the country, as a result of an understanding that he should betray the Democracy, or make it a tool of the gold aristocracy. He succeeded in the former by failing in the latter, and it has been his purpose and effort to defeat the party he could not destroy.

Since he has learned from southern men that they understand the object of Cleveland, Whitney & Co., no letters have been published expressing gloom connected with the Democracy as he is without doubt pursued that the sunlight and heat of an upright purpose continues to be a foundation to the Democratic party.

Cleveland and his kind of Democrats have been made to understand by southerners that they could return to the party, but they could not return as leaders of the Democracy, which explains two conditions connected with the aristocratic wing of the party. One of these conditions is that the Democracy cannot prevent their return to the party, they have a right to return if the party could not defeat should it be inclined to do so, the other is that the Democracy will not be connected to federalist aristocratic idea's respecting government which are the ideals of the Republican party as it is directed.

The leadership of Cleveland & Co., mean, no more or less, than a subversion of Jeffersonian Democracy or the real fact of self government by the people, for the people and a submission therefore of the aristocratic views of Hamilton in politics. The south has given the federalist wing of the party a lesson that includes its determination to remain with the southern ideal of free government as represented by Jefferson.

The real aristocratic theory of self government came from the south when it was given to the country, and the south continues to remain true to the doctrine, which Cleveland should have known it would do, when he was talking through southern newspapers.

Nevada Senate Downed the Bill

All honor to the good men of the Nevada Senate. They downed the lottery amendment in splendid shape yesterday and the Assembly is only awaiting to jump on this iniquitous measure with both feet.

It looked a little shaky the night before the battle, but there occurred a stampede at a moment when the lottery promoters believed they had the fight well in hand.

Although Senator Livingston will probably call for reconsideration, it is believed that the lottery bill is dead.

Coming! Coming!

Ell Perkins, whose writings and writings have made him famous the world over, will lecture here on Value of Telephone Numbers.

"Telephone numbers have an actual money value," said an officer of the American Bell Telephone company.
"The assertion has a strange sound, but if you think for a moment of the advantage a business house derived from having its location well known the thing seems only natural.

"In the course of time people's minds begin to associate a firm with its telephone number, and if when they start to call up an old friend they find him masquerading under a new number it is as much of a shock as if they had called at a house with which they were in the habit of doing business and found it had moved away. It all comes under the legal head of 'good will,' a very elusive commodity, but one which has its market value.

"So much is this fact appreciated by some of our old patrons that they are willing to pay heavy mileage if they move away from the neighborhood of their exchange in order to retain their old telephone address. Many important houses have followed the northward trend of business in the last few years, and there are several cases of a firm's office address being in the uptown district, while its telephone number remains so and so Cortland or Broad.
The firm's line to the exchange may be several miles long."—New York Mail and Express.

The Pie Foundry.
A man who recently visited a pie factory in Chicago thus describes it:

"The day we were there a special run was being made on pumpkin pies, and I looked in vain for any signs of pumpkin rind. One of the former grinned and told me in strict confidence that real pumpkin was never used in pumpkin pies at present except possibly in a few remote and very primitive New England villages. The substitute was a mixture of sweet potatoes, apples and cheap flour flavored with a chemical extract. I tasted some of the stuff and was satisfied he was telling me the truth.

"Cranberry pie contains only enough cranberries to 'make a showing,' after the manner of the oyster in the church fair stew. The rest is apple jelly colored red and flavored. I have forgotten the other substitutes employed, but these will give you a general idea of the morality of the business.

"The average output of the foundry was one a second, or about 36,000 pies for a working day. The manager told me they were shipped all over the country between specially prepared express cars.

PROMINENT NEVADANS

Take Upon Themselves the Holy Vows of Matrimony.

Married, Feb. 14, 1901, at the home of Theo. Winters, Washoe, his daughter Theodore Winters and Seth W. Longbough of Ophir. Miss Fidelia Parker of Cloverdale, Cal., acted as maid of honor and Mr. John Hancock of Montana, best man.

Rev. W. Dorrance, pastor of the Presbyterian church in Carson city officiated, using the impressive marriage ceremony of that church. There were a score or more of immediate friends of both families interested present. The bride received many and valuable presents.

After the ceremony the guests repaired to the commodious dining room and partook of a sumptuous wedding supper of all the dainties and delicacies of the season. The bride and groom left on the evening train for San Francisco where they will spend their honeymoon after which they will return to Ophir, Nevada, where they will make their home.

The bride and groom are both well and favorably known in both Carson and Reno and their many friends bespeak for them a long, happy and prosperous life.

Railroad Rumors Still Flying.

It is now almost an assured fact that within twelve months Reno will be the centralization point of the Southern Pacific company within the great basin. Orders have already been issued for an engineer corps to take the field and survey a line from Hailey, twenty five miles east of Reno, to Desert station, east of Wadsworth.

The line of the road will be thrown about four miles south of where it now runs between these points, insuring a level track, although several miles longer than at present.

As the road now runs there is a drop of several hundred feet from Desert to Wadsworth and another abrupt rise to Hailey. This requires extra power to assist trains to the summit. When this new line is built Wadsworth will sustain a loss of three-fourths of its income, which will come to Reno. The JOURNAL is honestly regretful that the sister town will suffer this damage, which may amount to almost complete annihilation.

Trucks will also sustain loss, because the yards and shops which exist there and furnish employment for more than one hundred men will no longer be used by the company.

This change will nearly double the population of Reno within a year after definite action in this matter is taken by the road.

Valentine Party in Wheelmen's Hall.

The Reno Wheelmen gave a Valentine party in their hall last evening. Neither too many nor too few were present and everybody had satiety of pleasure.

The following program was given: Music by the orchestra; song, George Ward; instrumental solo, Mr. Chamberlain; song, Wilbur Blair; song, E. C. Dales; song, Mrs. Lake; cornet solo, Richard Tobin; song, Mr. Ward, song, Leo Hickman.

An exhibition glove contest was given by Professor Pendergast and Will Groton. The latter put up a plucky and resolute fight but, of course, was outclassed. Dancing concluded the program.

New Wall Paper.

We have received the greater portion of our new stock of papers for this spring's trade.

Prices are twenty to twenty-five per cent lower than last year, while the goods are of better finish and design. We have reduced the prices of our hold over stock to meet the new prices of the new goods.

We have bought the most of our paper from the east and direct from the factory. We have a larger stock than ever before and so have obtained larger discounts, thereby being enabled to sell our goods cheap.

We will sell to you from 10 cents per double roll to three and four dollars per single roll. You will make a mistake by not looking over our stock before sending away.

Hunter's Railway, Carriage and House, Washoe, equal to any, free flowing, wood body, superb finish, great durability and reasonable price.

PORTFOLIO DECORATIVE CO., Washoe County Agents.

Last Call.

The Palace dry goods and carpet house leave their last call on shirt waists. These they offer in connection with all their winter goods at greatly reduced prices in order to make room for their spring stock soon to arrive. They don't intend to carry any of their winter goods over. Call and see them.

Winnemucca and Elko are clearing the State capital.
